The Viaduct

Woodward Opera House

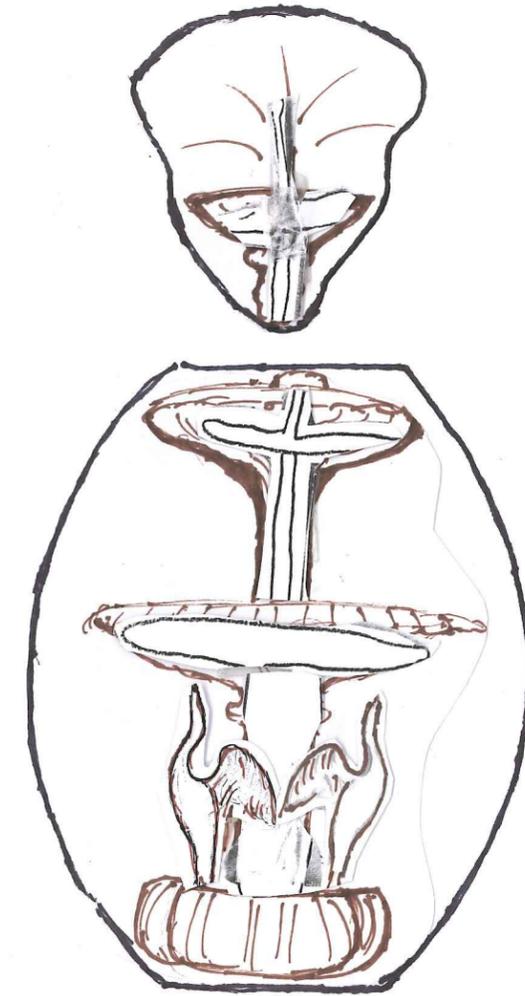

The viaduct is a stone arch bridge over the Kokosing River. It is on South Main Street in Mount Vernon, Ohio. Paint or color the red sandstone bridge, the clouds above, and the water below.

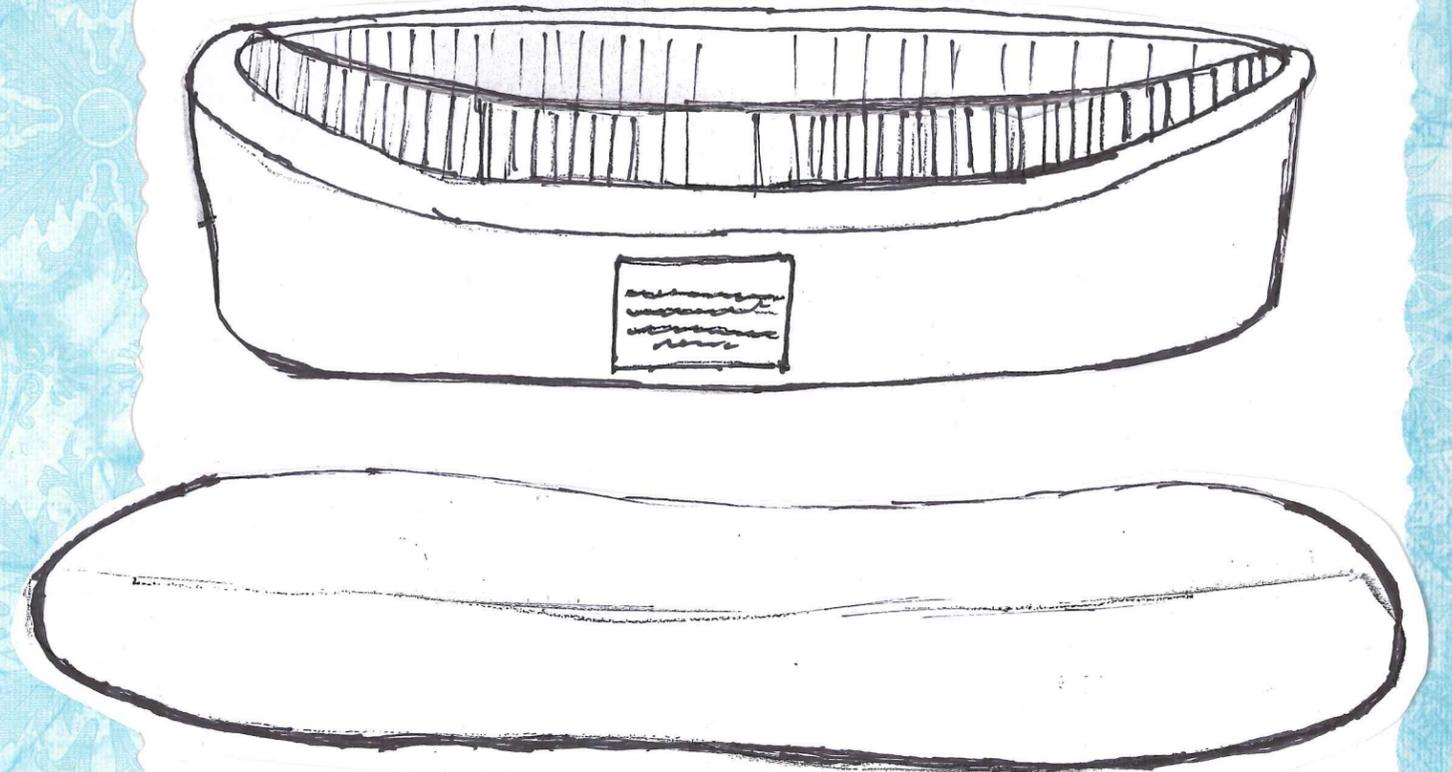

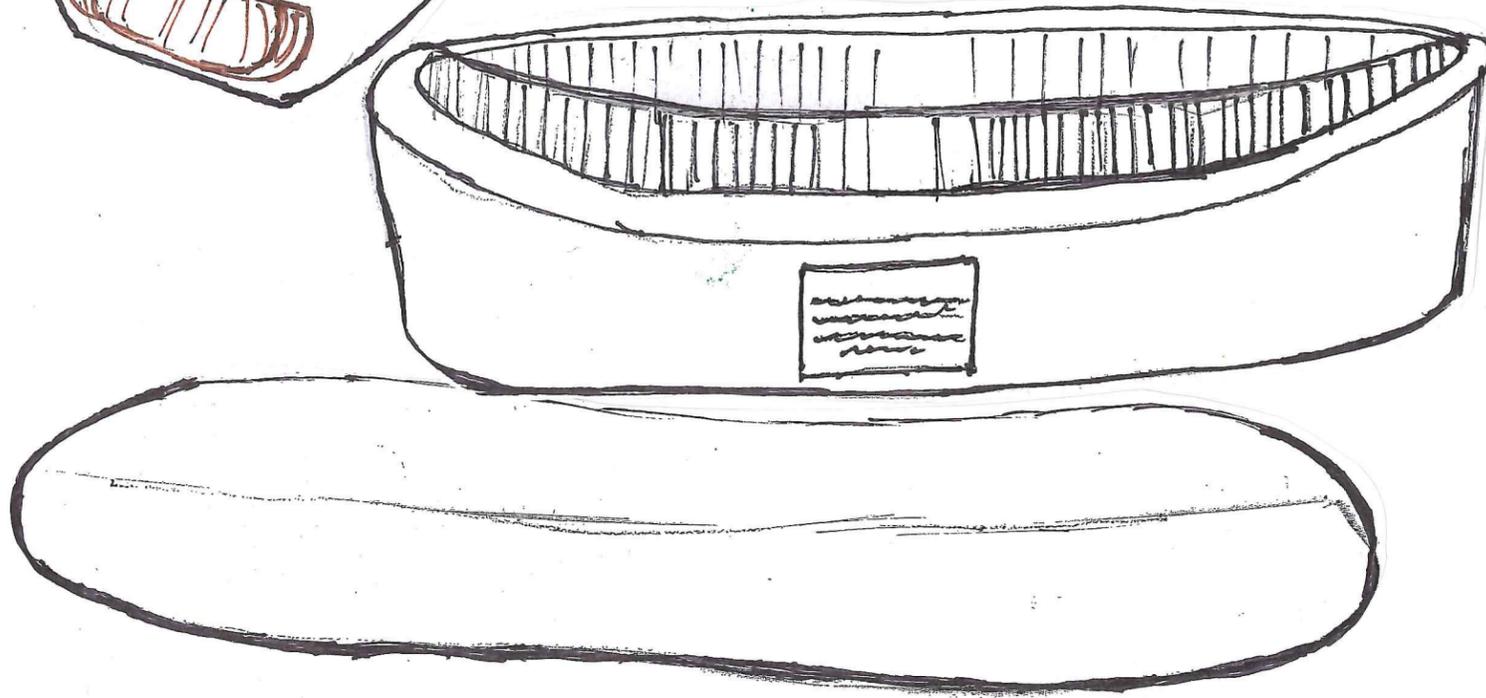

The Cooper Fountain

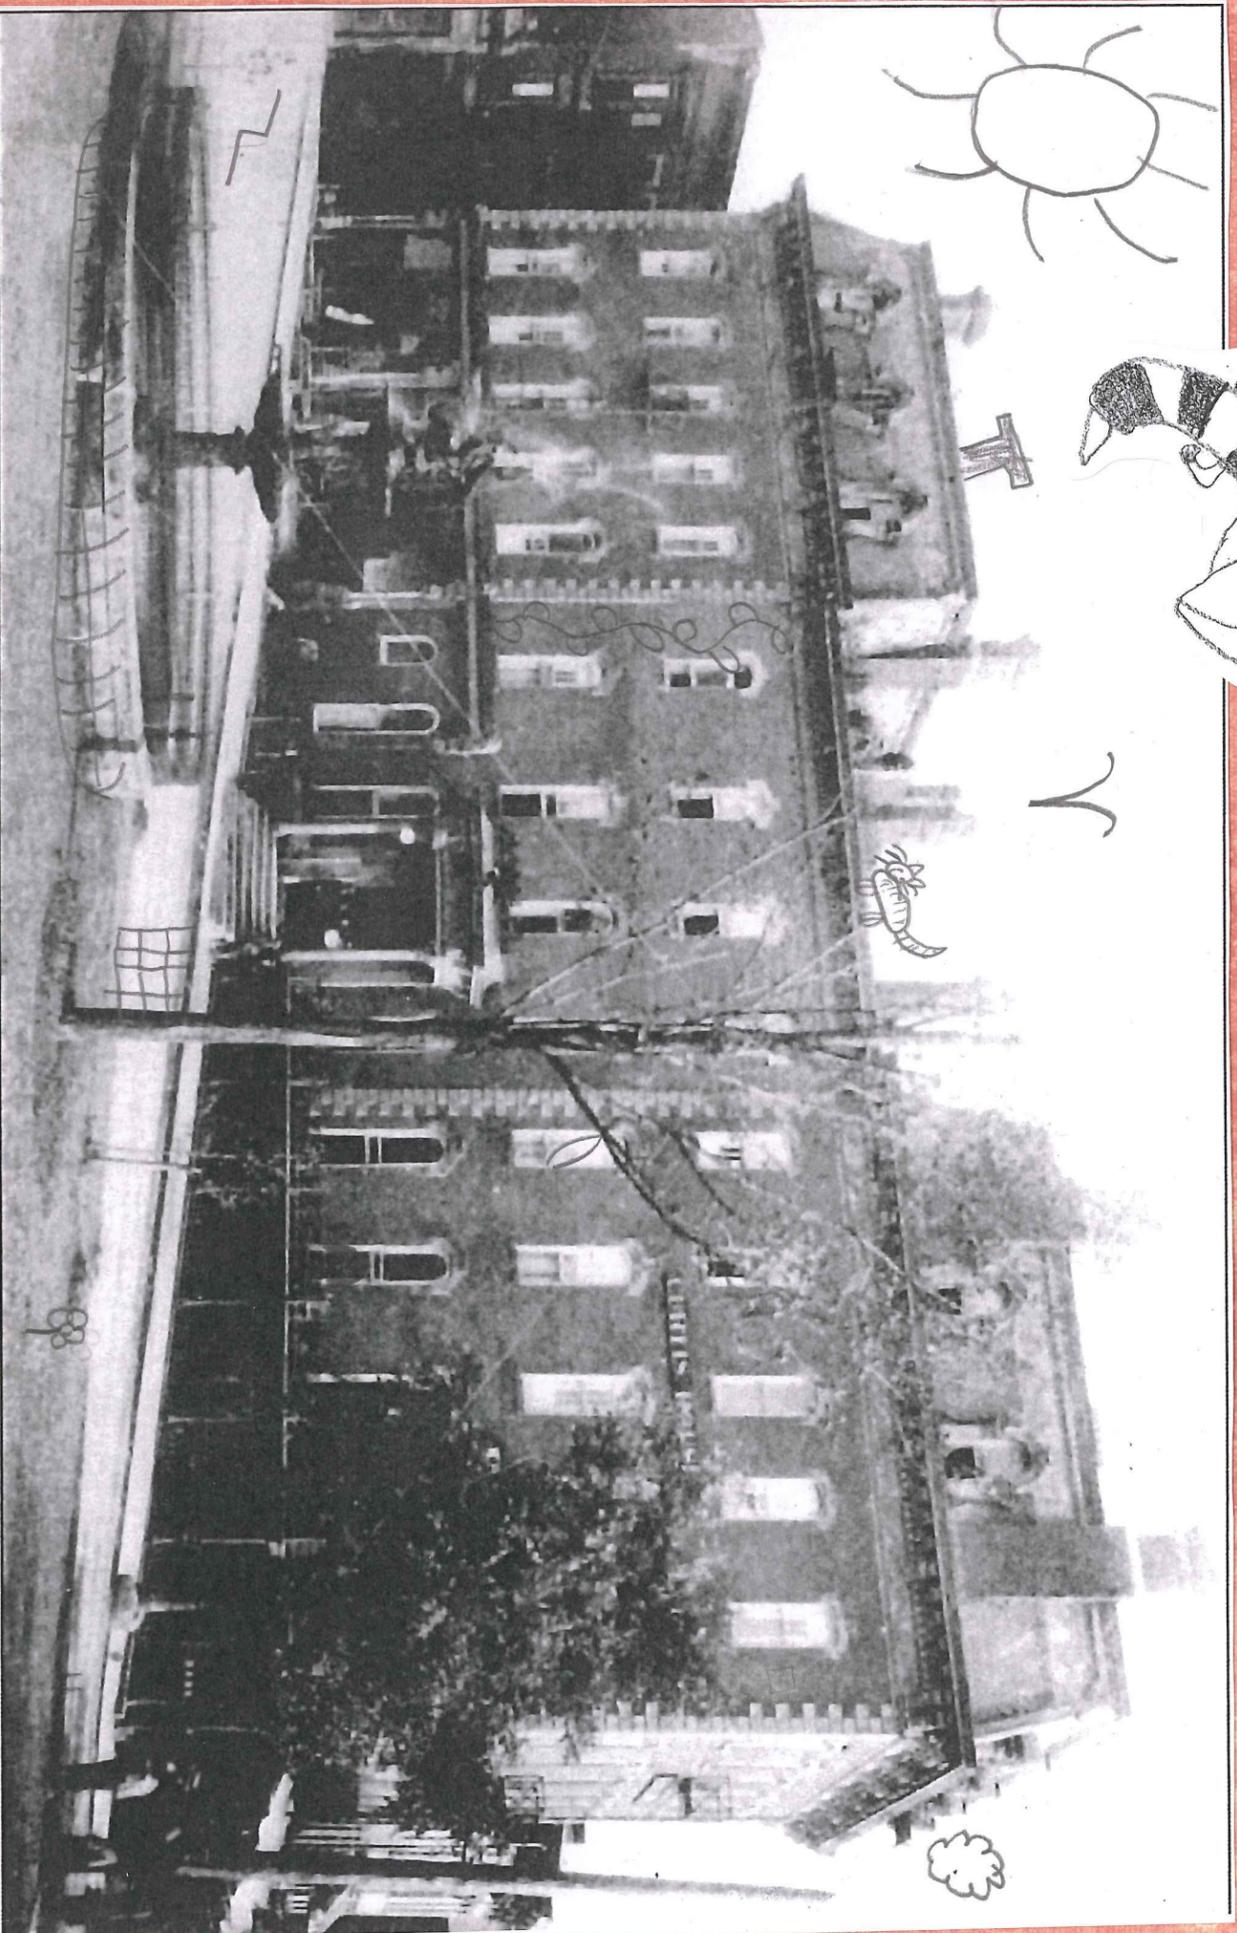

The Cooper Fountain is on the Public Square. The reason why the fountain is named "Cooper Fountain" is because Charles and Elias Cooper gave the fountain to Mount Vernon. For awhile the city had an aquarium in the fountain to get more people to come to town. It was not an aquarium for very long. The Cooper Fountain is a historical Mount Vernon monument.

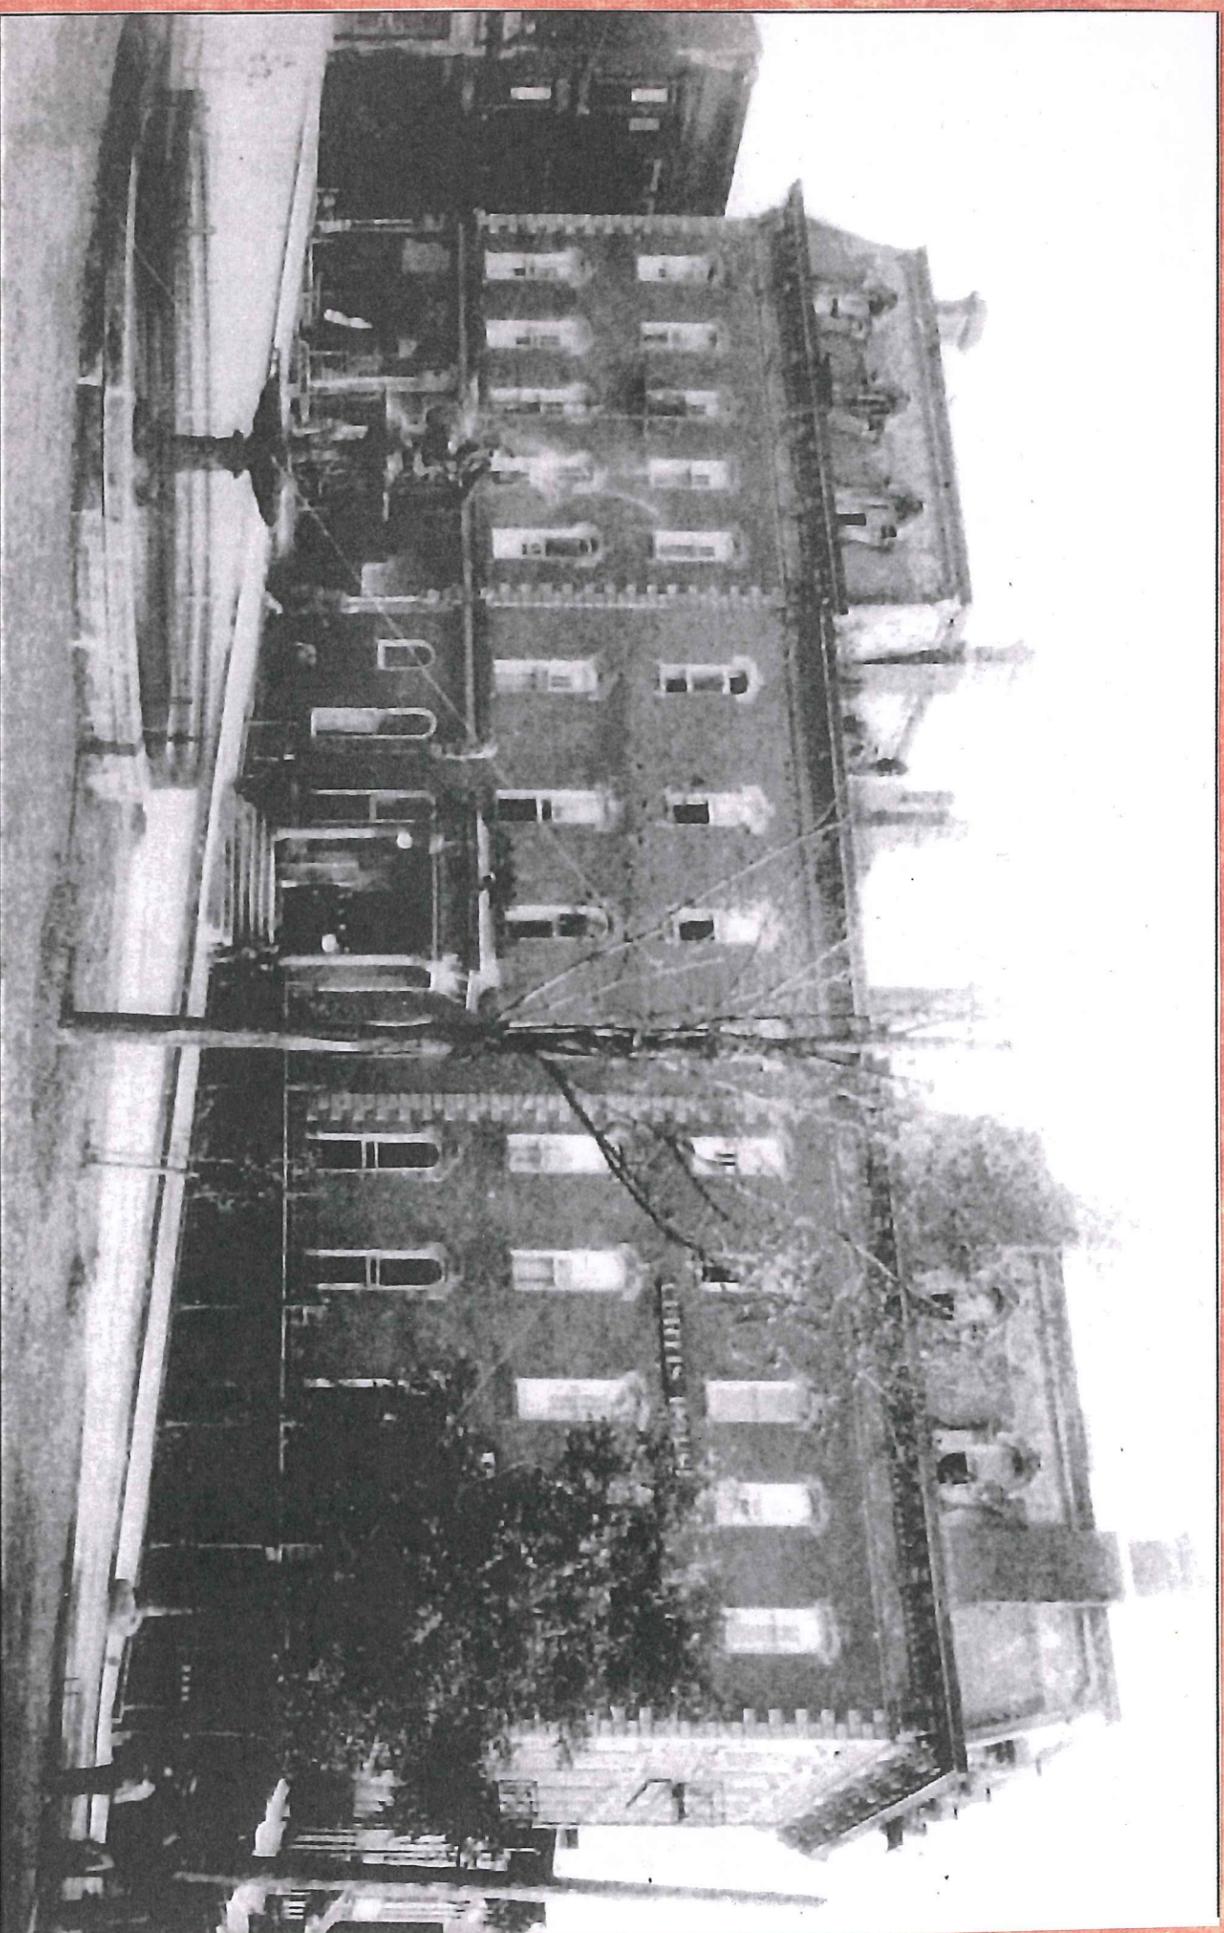

Make a mobile!

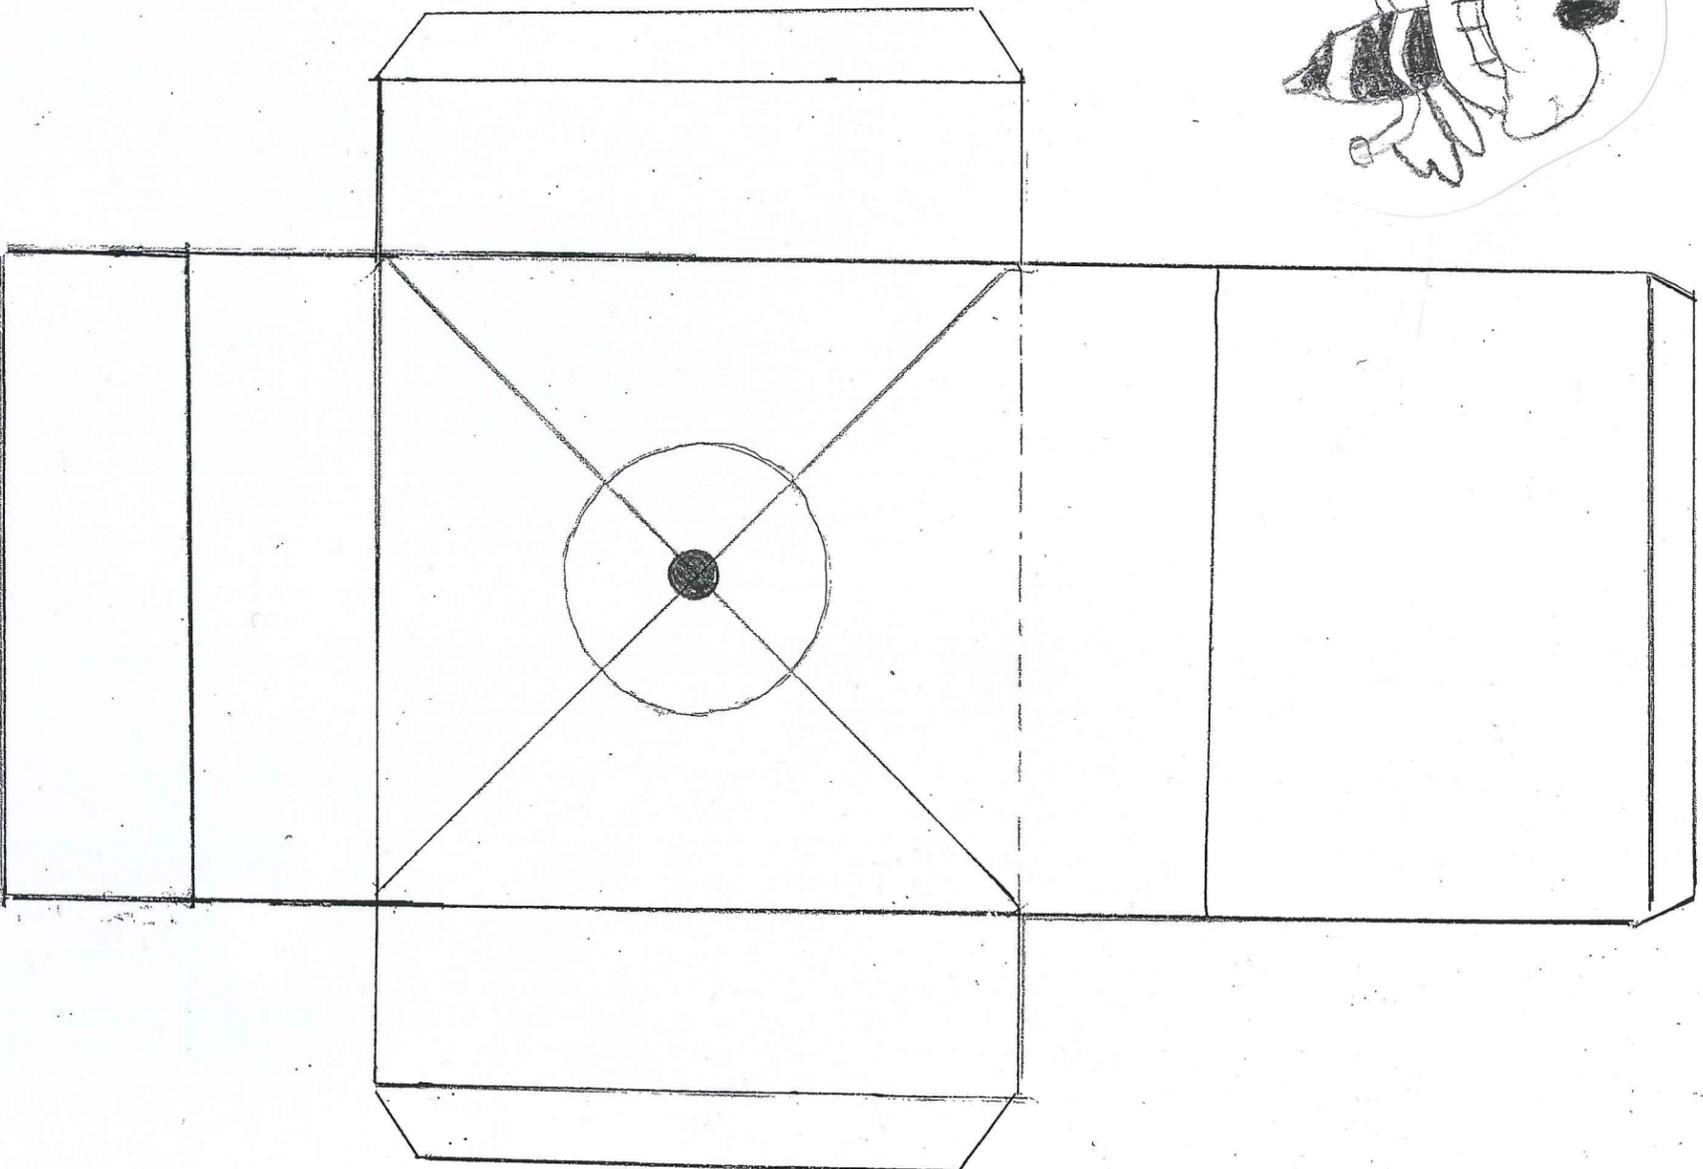

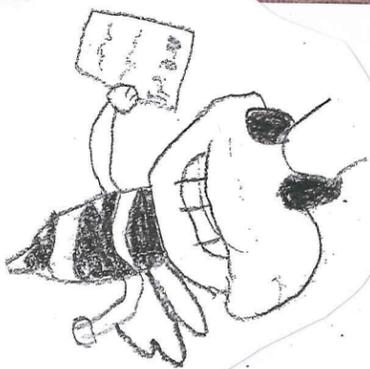

Paint or color the fountain pieces however you choose, then cut them out. Glue matching pieces to either side of the stick. Hang it with the piece of string.

The Curtis Hotel has been in three different buildings at the same place.
The first hotel had 73 rooms and 3 floors. The first hotel was built almost 140 years ago!

The Republican Newspaper

The Newspaper building was made in the 1900s. You could read The Republican Newspaper in the early part of the century.

This is like a camera from that time. Cut it out and fold it into a “box camera”. Poke a hole through the small dark circle and through the other side of the box, so that you can look through the “camera”. Use tape to hold the “camera” together.

The Memorial Building

The Memorial building was made between 1923 and 1925. It has three floors with eight stone pillars in the front. It is still used for entertainment.

(Answer key in the back.)

A. Guitar At least one Snowden child played the guitar.

B. Banjo Lew Snowden played the banjo.

C. Triangle The triangle was not always played.

D. Tambourine The tambourine was not always played.

E. Violin Sophia, Annie, and Ben Snowden played the violin.

The 3-C highway was completed in 1930. It was one of the first paved roads and runs from Cleveland through Columbus, then on to Cincinnati. It is over 240 miles long!
Find your way through the Ohio maze, going from Cleveland to Cincy!

The Woodward Opera House

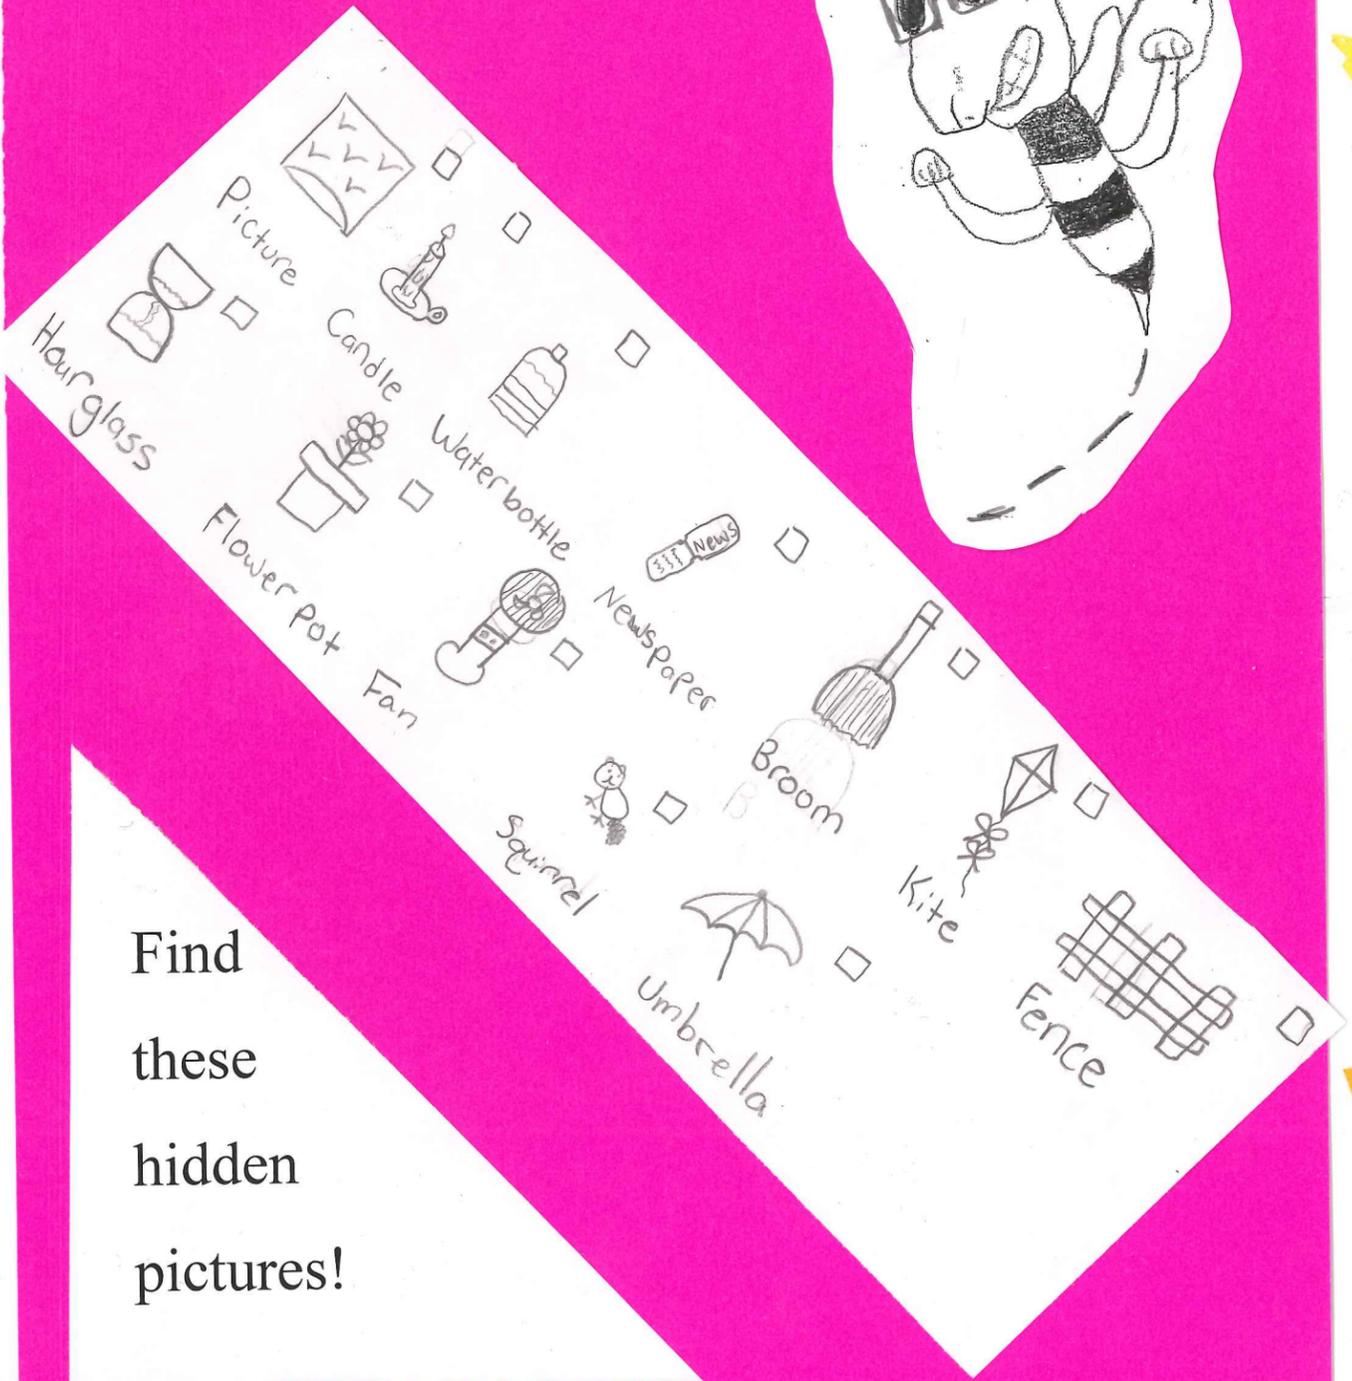

The Woodward Opera House is 163 years old! The Stage is made of iron and wood. It is to be reopened in the year 2016 or in the year 2017.

Complete the dot to dot, from number 1 through 12, to make the Opera House complete!

A Henry B. Curtis Home

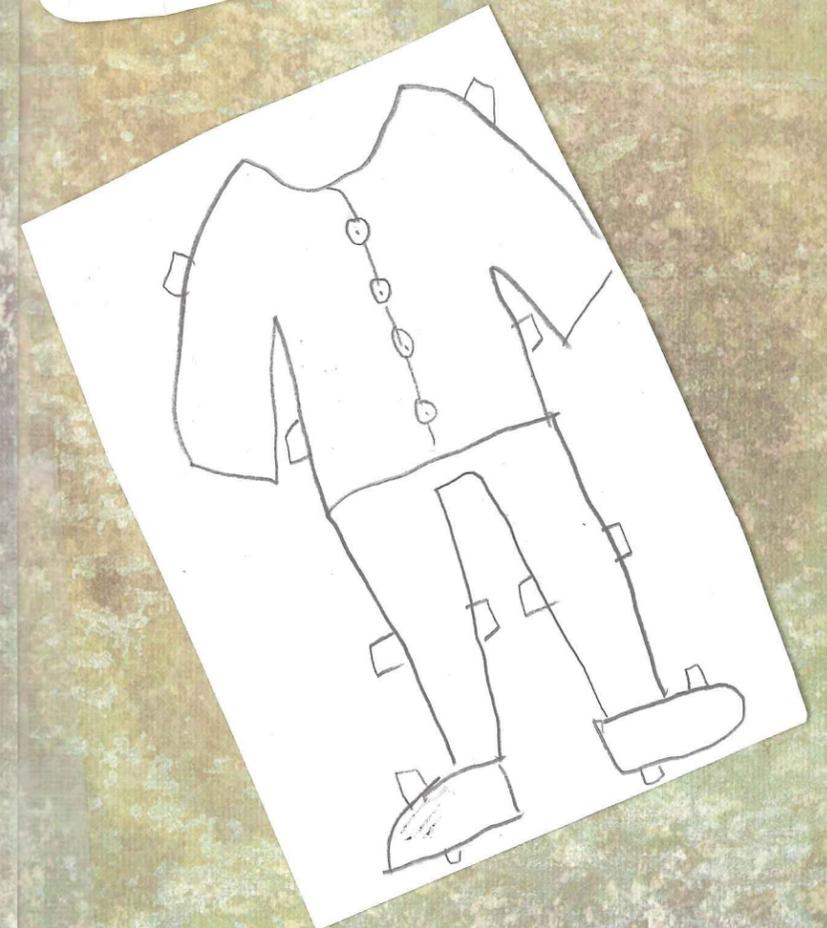

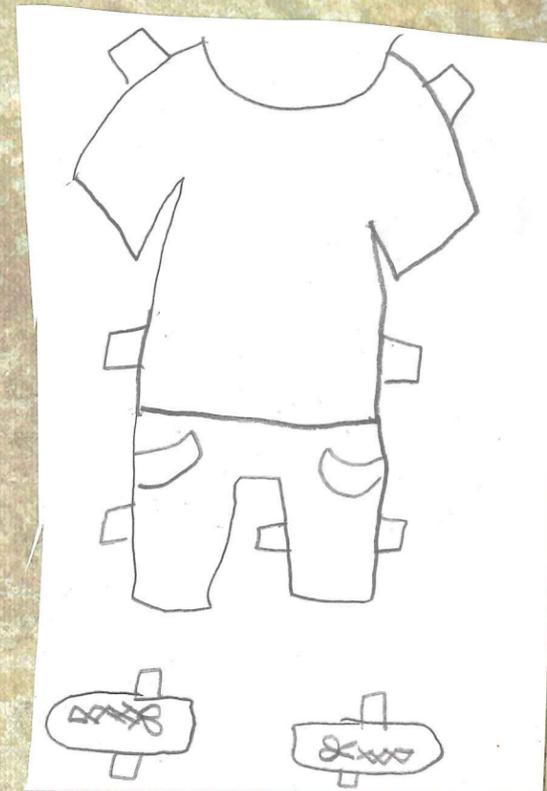

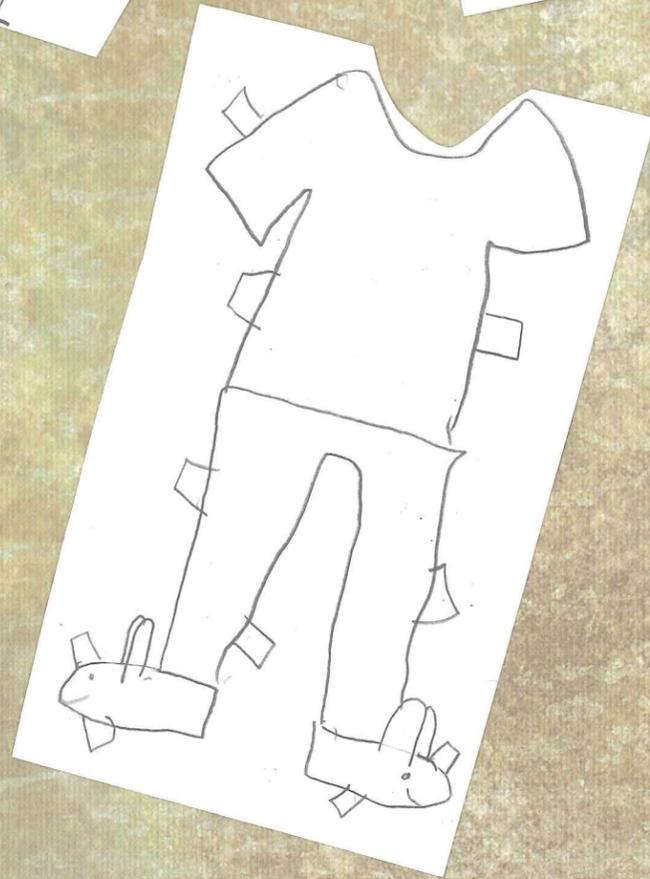

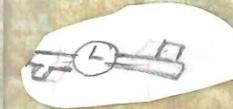

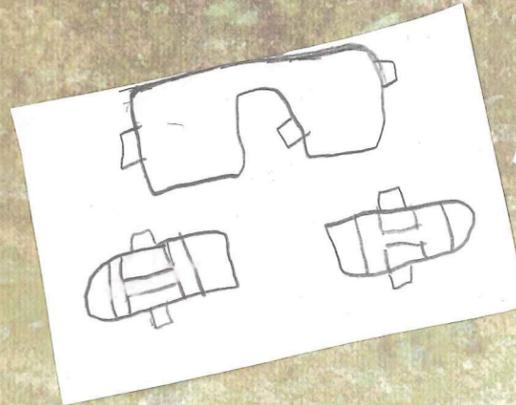

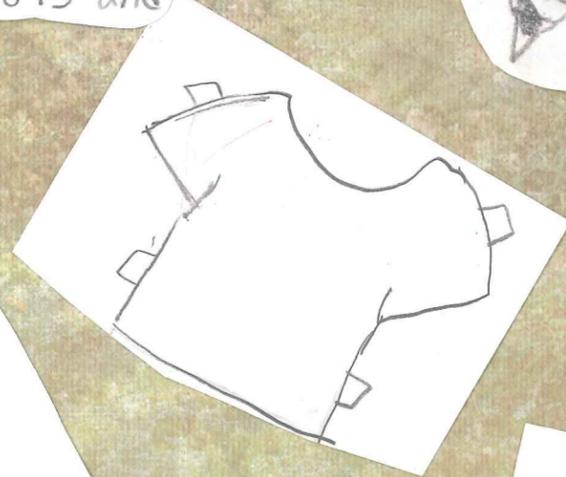

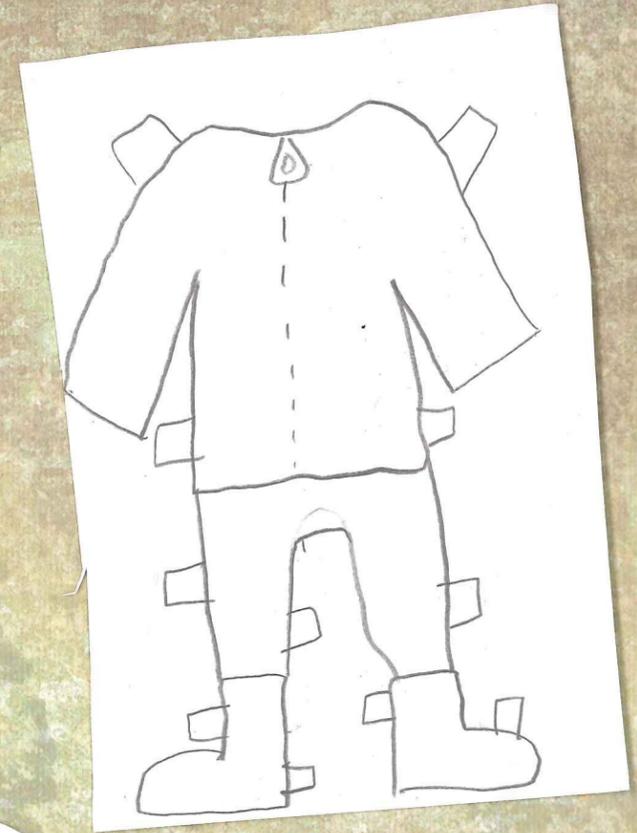

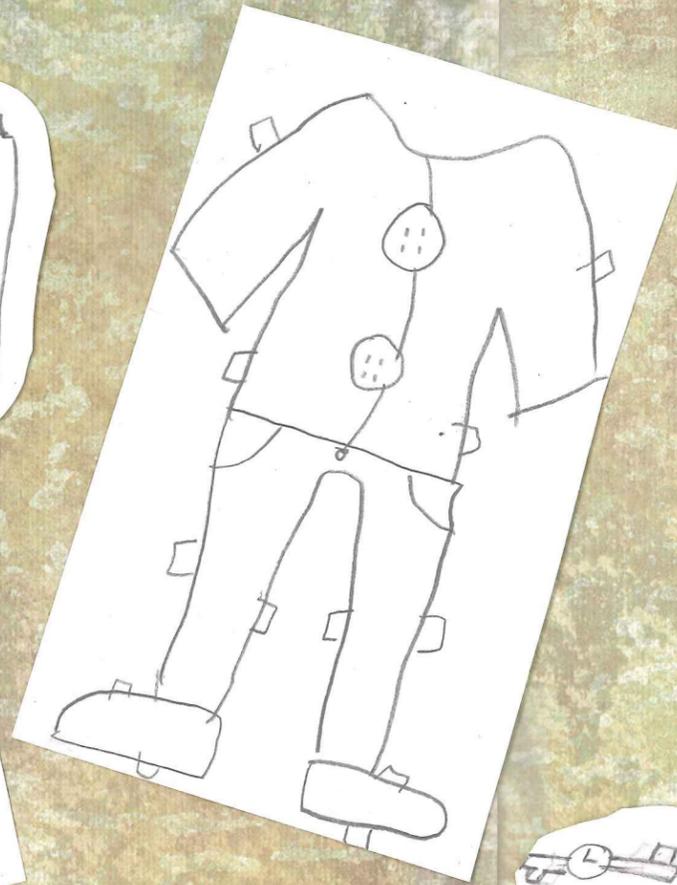

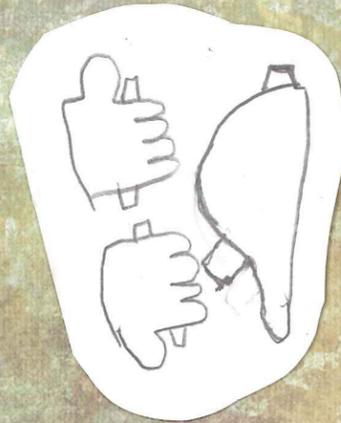

The Curtis Mansion, named for Henry B. Curtis, was built from 1853 until 1857. It has three stories with twenty two rooms, and ceilings that are fifteen feet tall! The Curtis Mansion is just east of North Gay Street and south of Route 3, in Mount Vernon. It is also known as "Round Hill".
